Competence Programme

The fees payable by a practitioner who is required to undertake a competence programme set or recognised by the Council under section 40 of the Act will be an amount that is sufficient to reimburse the Council for all costs and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the Council in relation to the competence programme that applies to the practitioner. Such costs and expenses may include, without limitation:

- a. Fees for service providers engaged by the Council in relation to the competence programme.
- b. Travel, accommodation, and travel-related costs incurred in connection with site visits.
- c. Administration expenses for teleconference meetings, printing, postage, and communications.

Supervision

The fees payable by a practitioner who is the subject of a condition included in the practitioner's scope of practice requiring the practitioner to practise subject to the supervision of one or more nominated health practitioners or health practitioners of a stated class will be an amount that is sufficient to reimburse the Council for all costs and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the Council in relation to the supervision of the practitioner. Such costs and expenses may include, without limitation:

- a. Fees for service providers engaged by the Council in relation to the competence programme.
- b. Travel, accommodation, and travel-related costs incurred in connection with site visits.
- c. Administration expenses for teleconference meetings, printing, postage, and communications.
